

Students take turns giving answers orally. In RoundRobin students takes turns in their teams. In RallyRobin, partners take turns. This structure is great where there are lots of possible answers to a question. Some examples include: names of colours, words that start with the letter g and famous Australians.

