Dear Parents/Guardians,

The students in Foundation and Year 1 have been offered the opportunity to see “Yo Diddle Diddle” at Bunjil Place in Narre Warren on Friday, 22 June 2018. This amazing new theatre complex is providing us with both complimentary tickets for the 10am performance and transport (Yes it’s free!!).

“Yo Diddle Diddle” is based on the award winning picture story book “The Cow Tripped Over The Moon” by Tony Wilson and explains to children what happened before the famous nursery rhyme cow actually succeeded in jumping over the moon.

The show is being performed by the Patch Theatre Company and promotes one of our school values - persistence. It complements the students’ classroom English programs and will also form part of the Foundation students’ Artistic Flair program.

Whilst at Bunjil Place, the students will also explore the other facilities provided such as the City of Casey library and the playground.

The students will leave school at 9am and return to school before 3pm. Transport will be provided by Kingston Bus lines. Students will need to wear their regular school uniform (not house colours) and should bring their play lunch (plus a drink) and their lunch in a separate, named, disposable bags.

If parents would like to attend this excursion, please see your classroom teacher. Parents will be advised as to whether they can attend the performance as places are limited. Parents will need to transport themselves on the day if they attend.

Permission slips are due back at the classroom by Friday, 8 June 2018. Please note, no late permission slips will be accepted.
