Dear Parents,

Today your child will bring home a “Read to Me” book... a picture story book which we hope you will read to your child. Making time to read each day is important and “Read to Me” books can help you initiate such a habit or can be incorporated into an established routine of reading to children. Reading literature to children models a love of reading, exposes children to new vocabulary and provides an opportunity to discuss the meaning and characterisation that is being conveyed through a text.

Once children are ready to read decodable books, we will send home books that they can read to you, however until this stage, please enjoy reading these lovely books to your child.

If you have any questions regarding “Read to Me” books, please contact you classroom teacher.

Regards,
