

i sea i care - Mooraker Dolphin Swim

Dear Parents/Guardians,

After submitting a written application expressing interest in a position as an ambassador for The Dolphin Institute, your child has been chosen to represent Cranbourne South Primary School in the i sea i care program.

The four successful Year 4 applicants chosen as i sea i care ambassadors for 2021-2022, will experience four excursions throughout the twelve month period and be provided hands-on experience and education on the importance of caring for our marine environment and marine life. This is an exciting and informative opportunity with the majority of costs incurred by the school. The first excursion will be held this term and the other three in 2022.
